GENERAL

Type of organisation

- 1 The organisation will, upon registration, be a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation (SCIO).

Scottish principal office

- 2 The principal office of the organisation will be in Scotland (and must remain in Scotland).

Name

- 3 The name of the organisation is "SOUTH MACHARS COMMUNITY CENTRE -WHITHORN"

Purposes

4. The organisation's purposes are;
 - The provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended.

This will be delivered from our aims, including;

- 4.1 The establishment of a fully inclusive, welcoming and effective Community Centre that will offer community members the opportunity to;
 - 4.1.1 Become involved with a wider range of social, leisure and sporting activities than is available at present.
 - 4.1.2 Socialise and learn new skills
 - 4.1.3 Access enhanced local services in a venue that is accessible and affordable
 - 4.1.4 Become involved in the operation of the Centre as a volunteer
- 4.2 Through feedback and evaluation ensure that the Centre remains focussed on the needs of the wider community

Powers

- 5 The organisation has power to do anything which is calculated to further its purposes or is conducive or incidental to doing so.
 - 3.1.1 To purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire any property suitable for the organisation;

- 5.1.2. To construct, convert, improve, develop, conserve, maintain, alter, demolish any buildings or erections whether on a permanent or temporary nature, and manage and operate (or arrange for professional or other appropriate management and operation of) the organisation's property;
- 5.1.3. To accept subscriptions, grants, donations, gifts, legacies and endowments of all kinds, either absolutely, conditionally or in trust;
- 5.1.4 To set aside funds not immediately required as a reserve or for specific purposes;
- 5.1.5 To effect insurance of all kinds (which may include indemnity insurance in respect of Trustees and employees);
- 5.1.6 To employ, contract with, train and pay such staff (whether employed or self-employed) as are considered appropriate for the proper conduct of the activities of the organisation;
- 5.1.7 To take such steps as may be deemed appropriate for the purpose of raising funds for the activities of the organisation;
- 5.1.8 To encourage and develop a spirit of voluntary or other commitment by, or co-operation with, individuals, unincorporated associations, societies, federations, partnerships, corporate bodies, agencies, undertakings, local authorities, unions, co-operatives, trusts and others and any groups or groupings thereof willing to assist the Organisation to achieve the Purposes;
- 5.1.9 To prepare, organise, promote and implement training courses, exhibitions, lectures, seminars, conferences, events and workshops, to collect, collate, disseminate and exchange information and to prepare, produce, edit, publish, exhibit and distribute clauses, pamphlets, books and other publications, recordings, motion and still pictures, music and drama and other materials, all in any medium;
- 4 No part of the income or property of the organisation may be paid or transferred (directly or indirectly) to the members - either in the course of the organisation's existence or on dissolution - except where this is done in direct furtherance of the organisation's charitable purposes.

Liability of members

- 5 The members of the organisation have no liability to pay any sums to help to meet the debts (or other liabilities) of the organisation if it is wound up; accordingly, if the organisation is unable to meet its debts, the members will not be held responsible.
- 6 The members and charity trustees have certain legal duties under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and clause 7 does not exclude (or limit) any personal liabilities they might incur if they are in breach of those duties or in breach of other legal obligations or duties that apply to them personally.

General structure

7 The structure of the organisation consists of:-

7.1 the MEMBERS - who have the right to attend members' meetings (including any annual general meeting) and have important powers under the constitution; in particular, the members appoint people to serve on the board and take decisions on changes to the constitution itself;

7.2 Each group of members (user group) shall appoint one named authorised representative to represent and act for such members at all GMs. Any change in the appointment of an authorised representative may be made at any time by the appointing Member, but only by written notice to the Organisation. Such notice will take effect upon its receipt by the Organisation.

7.3 The BOARD – who hold regular meetings and generally control the activities of the organisation; for example, the board is responsible for monitoring and controlling the financial position of the organisation. They will also follow a code of conduct which will include the following;

7.4 To be objective, honest and be able to deal with issues of a confidential nature;

9.4.1 To attend and contribute to all Board or Management Committee meetings, devoting the necessary time and effort to prepare for meetings;

9.4.2 To use their specific skills, knowledge or experience to contribute to sound decision making, in the best interests of the organisation and not the individual;

9.4.3 To advocate the needs of the organisation and not his/her own particular nominating or employing body

9.4.4 To let the Chairperson know of any development that may result in a direct conflict of interest with decisions being taken by the Board or Management committee;

9.4.5 To treat matters within the organisation as confidential and abide by decisions taken;

9.4.6 To serve on at least one sub committee;

9.4.7 To attend occasional events, functions and other meetings relative to the organisation and negotiate if necessary from a brief prepared in advance of the meetings;

9.4.8 Each Board member should have an awareness of the organisation's current needs and demands and government policy relevant to the organisation's purpose and the voluntary sector.

- 8 The people serving on the board are referred to in this constitution as CHARITY TRUSTEES.

MEMBERS

Qualifications for membership

- 9 Membership is open to any individual. Any member 16 years or over who wishes to use the South Machars Community Centre in furtherance of the organisations purposes (clause 4) has automatic voting rights.
- 10 Employees of the organisation are not eligible for membership.

Application for membership

- 11 Any person who wishes to become a member must sign a written application for membership; the application will then be considered by the board at its next board meeting.
- 12 The board of directors may, at their discretion, refuse to admit any person to membership where they have reasonable grounds to believe that he/she might, if admitted to membership, act in a manner that would damage the reputation of the company, undermine the efficiency of its operations and/or disrupt the proper conduct of its meetings.
- 13 The board must notify each applicant promptly (in writing or by e-mail) of its decision on whether or not to admit him/her to membership.

Membership subscription

- 14 All members will pay an annual membership of the amount agreed by its members. This will be recognised as a subscription and will be payable, after the AGM.
- 15 Annual subscriptions shall be reviewed and set by Members at the AGM. Different rates may be set at the discretion of its Members by majority vote and should take into account Senior and Junior Members;

- 16 Any Individual or Organisation who/which ceases to be a Member shall not be entitled to a refund of their/its membership subscription

Register of members

- 17 The board must keep a register of members, setting out
- 17.1 for each current member:
 - 17.1.1 his/her full name and address; and
 - 17.1.2 the date on which he/she was registered as a member of the organisation;
 - 17.2 for each former member - for at least six years from the date on he/she ceased to be a member:
 - 17.2.1 his/her name; and
 - 17.2.2 The date on which he/she ceased to be a member.
- 18 The board must ensure that the register of members is updated within 28 days of any change:
- 18.1 which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or
 - 18.2 Which is notified to the organisation.
- 19 If a member or charity trustee of the organisation requests a copy of the register of members, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to him/her within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a member (rather than a charity trustee), the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out.

Withdrawal from membership

- 20 Any person who wants to withdraw from membership must give a written notice of withdrawal to the organisation, signed by him/her; he/she will cease to be a member as from the time when the notice is received by the organisation and will not qualify for a refund as per clause 18.

Transfer of membership

- 21 Membership of the organisation may not be transferred by a member.

Re-registration of members

- 22 The board may, at any time, issue notices to the members requiring them to confirm that they wish to remain as members of the organisation, and allowing them a period of 28 days (running from the date of issue of the notice) to provide that confirmation to the board.

- 23 If a member fails to provide confirmation to the Board (in writing or by e-mail) that they wish to remain as a member of the organisation before the expiry of the 28-day period, the Board may expel them from the membership.
- 24 A notice under clause 24 will not be valid unless it refers specifically to the consequences of failing to provide confirmation within the 28-day period.
- 25 A notice under clause 24 will not be valid unless it refers specifically to the consequences (under clause 25) of failing to provide confirmation within the 28-day period.

Expulsion from membership

- 26 Any person may be expelled from membership by way of a resolution passed by not less than two thirds of those present and voting at a members' meeting, providing the following procedures have been observed:-

26.1 at least 21 days' notice of the intention to propose the resolution must be given to the member concerned, specifying the grounds for the proposed expulsion;

26.2 The member concerned will be entitled to be heard on the resolution at the members' meeting at which the resolution is proposed.

Termination

- 27 Membership of the organisation will terminate on death.
- 28 Or if a Member has failed to pay an annual membership subscription for over six months and has received at least one written reminder, and the Board has resolved to expel that Member

DECISION-MAKING BY THE MEMBERS

Members' meetings

- 29 The board must arrange a meeting of members (an annual general meeting or "AGM") in each calendar year.
- 30 The gap between one AGM and the next must not be longer than 15 months.
- 31 Notwithstanding Clause 32, An AGM does not need to be held during the calendar year in which the organisation is formed; but the first AGM must still be held within 15 months of the date on which the organisation is formed.

The board may make arrangements, in advance of any members' meeting, to allow members to participate in the members' meeting by means of a conference telephone, video conferencing facility or similar communications equipment - so long as all those participating in the meeting can hear each other; a member participating in a members' meeting in this manner shall be deemed to be present in person at the meeting.

- 32 The business of each AGM must include:-
- 32.1 a report by the chair on the activities of the organisation;
 - 32.2 consideration of the annual accounts of the organisation;
 - 32.3 the election/re-election of charity trustees; as referred to in clauses 64 to 67(3)
- 33 The board may arrange a special members' meeting at any time.

Power to request the board to arrange a special members' meeting

- 34 The board must arrange a special members' meeting if they are requested to do so by a notice (which may take the form of two or more documents in the same terms, each signed by one or more members) by members who amount to 5% or more of the total membership of the organisation at the time, providing:
- 34.1 the notice states the purposes for which the meeting is to be held; and
 - 34.2 Those purposes are not inconsistent with the terms of this constitution, the Charities and Trustee (Investment) Scotland Act 2005 or any other statutory provision.
- 35 If the board receives a notice under clause 37; the date for the meeting which they arrange in accordance with the notice must not be later than 28 days from the date on which they received the notice.

Notice of members' meetings

- 36 At least 14 clear days' notice must be given of any AGM or any special members' meeting.
- 37 The notice calling a members' meeting must specify in general terms what business is to be dealt with at the meeting; and
- 37.1 in the case of a resolution to alter the constitution, must set out the exact terms of the proposed alteration(s); or
- 37.2 In the case of any other resolution falling within clause 50 (requirement for two-thirds majority) must set out the exact terms of the resolution.
- 38 The reference to "clear days" in clause 39 shall be taken to mean that, in calculating the period of notice,
- 38.1 the day after the notices are posted (or sent by e-mail) should be excluded; and
- 38.2 the day of the meeting itself should also be excluded.
- 39 Notice of every members' meeting must be given to all the members of the organisation, and to all the charity trustees; but the accidental omission to give notice to one or more members will not invalidate the proceedings at the meeting.
- 40 Any notice which requires to be given to a member under this constitution must be: -
- 40.1 sent by post to the member, at the address last notified by him/her to the organisation; or
- 40.2 sent by e-mail to the member, at the e-mail address last notified by him/her to the organisation.

Procedure at members' meetings

- 41 No valid decisions can be taken at any members' meeting unless a quorum is present.
- 42 The quorum for a members' meeting is 10 members, present in person.
- 43 If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which a members' meeting was due to start - or if a quorum ceases to be present during a members' meeting - the meeting cannot proceed; and fresh notices of meeting will require to be sent out, to deal with the business (or remaining business) which was intended to be conducted.

- 44 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each members' meeting.
- 45 If the chair of the organisation is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.

Voting at members' meetings

- 46 Every member has one vote, which must be given personally; or where that person cannot attend the meeting they may take part in voting processes by proxy, however only one vote by proxy per household will be permitted;
- 47 All decisions at members' meetings will be made by majority vote - with the exception of the types of resolution listed in clause 51.
- 48 The following resolutions will be valid only if passed by not less than two thirds of those voting on the resolution at a members' meeting (or if passed by way of a written resolution); under clause 55
- 48.1 a resolution amending the constitution;
 - 48.2 a resolution expelling a person from membership
 - 48.3 a resolution directing the board to take any particular step (or directing the board not to take any particular step);
 - 48.4 a resolution approving the amalgamation of the organisation with another SCIO (or approving the constitution of the new SCIO to be constituted as the successor pursuant to that amalgamation);
 - 48.5 a resolution to the effect that all of the organisation's property, rights and liabilities should be transferred to another SCIO (or agreeing to the transfer from another SCIO of all of its property, rights and liabilities);
 - 48.6 a resolution for the winding up or dissolution of the organisation.
- 49 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.
- 50 A resolution put to the vote at a members' meeting will be decided on a show of hands - unless the chairperson (or at least two other members present at the meeting) ask for a secret ballot.

- 51 The chairperson will decide how any secret ballot is to be conducted, and he/she will declare the result of the ballot at the meeting.

Written resolutions by members

- 52 A resolution agreed to in writing (or by e-mail) by all the members will be as valid as if it had been passed at a members' meeting; the date of the resolution will be taken to be the date on which the last member agreed to it.

Minutes

- 53 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all members' meetings.
- 54 Minutes of members' meetings must include the names of those present; (and so far as possible) should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 55 The board shall make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 53 to any member of the public requesting them; but on the basis that the board may exclude confidential material to the extent permitted, under clause 105

BOARD

Number of charity trustees

- 56 The maximum number of charity trustees is 15; out of that:
- 56.1 no more than 8 shall be charity trustees who were elected/appointed under clauses 63 to 67(3) (or deemed to have been appointed under clause 8); and
- 56.2 no more than 4 shall be charity trustees who were co-opted under the provisions of clauses 72 and 74.
- 57 The minimum number of charity trustees is 5.

Eligibility

- 58 A person shall not be eligible for election/appointment to the board, under clauses 63 to 69, unless he/she is a member of the organisation; a person appointed to the board need not, however, be a member of the organisation.
- 59 A person will not be eligible for election or appointment to the board if he/she is: -
- 59.1 disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or 59.2 an employee of the organisation.

Initial charity trustees

60 The individuals who signed the charity trustee declaration forms which accompanied the application for incorporation of the organisation shall be deemed to have been appointed by the members as charity trustees with effect from the date of incorporation of the organisation.

Election, retire, re-election

61 At each AGM, the members may elect any member (unless he/she is debarred from membership) to be a charity trustee.

62 The board may at any time appoint any member, under clause 62 (unless he/she is debarred from membership, under clause 62) to be a charity trustee.

63 At each AGM, all of the charity trustees elected/appointed, under clauses 64 and 65 (and, in the case of the first AGM, those deemed to have been appointed, under clauses 63 and 64) shall retire from office – but shall then be eligible for re-election.

64 A charity trustee retiring at an AGM will be deemed to have been re-elected unless: -

64.1 he/she advises the board prior to the conclusion of the AGM that he/she does not wish to be re-appointed as a charity trustee; or

64.2 an election process was held at the AGM and he/she was not among those elected/re-elected through that process; or

64.3 A resolution for the re-election of that charity trustee was put to the AGM and was not carried.

Appointment/re-appointment of co-opted charity trustees

65 In addition to their powers under clause 65, the board may at any time appoint any non-member of the organisation to be a charity trustee (subject to clause 59) and providing he/she is not debarred from membership under clause 62) either on the basis that he/she has been nominated by a body with which the organisation has close contact in the course of its activities or on the basis that he/she has specialist experience and/or skills which could be of assistance to the board.

66 At each AGM, all of the charity trustees appointed under clause 65 shall retire from office – but shall then be eligible for re-appointment under that clause.

Termination of office

67 A charity trustee will automatically cease to hold office if: -

67.1 he/she becomes disqualified from being a charity trustee under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005;

67.2 he/she becomes incapable for medical reasons of carrying out his/her duties as a charity trustee - but only if that has continued (or is expected to continue) for a period of more than six months;

67.3 (in the case of a charity trustee elected/appointed under clauses 63 to 68) he/she ceases to be a member of the organisation;

67.4 he/she becomes an employee of the organisation;

67.5 he/she gives the organisation a notice of resignation, signed by him/her;

67.6 he/she is absent (without good reason, in the opinion of the board) from more than three consecutive meetings of the board - but only if the board resolves to remove him/her from office;

67.7 he/she is removed from office by resolution of the board on the grounds that he/she is considered to have committed a material breach of the code of conduct for charity trustees, under clause 87);

67.8 he/she is removed from office by resolution of the board on the grounds that he/she is considered to have been in serious or persistent breach of his/her duties under section 66(1) or (2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; or

67.9 He/she is removed from office by a resolution of the members passed at a members' meeting, under paragraph 69.7, 69.8 or 69.9

68 A resolution shall be valid only if: -

68.1 the charity trustee who is the subject of the resolution is given reasonable prior written notice of the grounds upon which the resolution for his/her removal is to be proposed;

68.2 the charity trustee concerned is given the opportunity to address the meeting at which the resolution is proposed, prior to the resolution being put to the vote; and

- 68.3 (In the case of a resolution under paragraph 67.7 or 67.8) at least two thirds (to the nearest round number) of the charity trustees then in office vote in favour of the resolution.

Register of charity trustees

- 69 The board must keep a register of charity trustees, setting out
- 69.1 for each current charity trustee:
 - 69.1.1 his/her full name and address;
 - 69.1.2 the date on which he/she was appointed as a charity trustee; and
 - 69.1.3 any office held by him/her in the organisation;
 - 69.2 for each former charity trustee - for at least 6 years from the date on which he/she ceased to be a charity trustee:
 - 69.2.1 the name of the charity trustee;
 - 69.2.2 any office held by him/her in the organisation; and
 - 69.2.3 the date on which he/she ceased to be a charity trustee.
- 70 The board must ensure that the register of charity trustees is updated within 28 days of any change:
- 70.1 which arises from a resolution of the board or a resolution passed by the members of the organisation; or
 - 70.2 which is notified to the organisation.
- 71 If any person requests a copy of the register of charity trustees, the board must ensure that a copy is supplied to him/her within 28 days, providing the request is reasonable; if the request is made by a person who is not a charity trustee of the organisation, the board may provide a copy which has the addresses blanked out - if the SCIO is satisfied that including that information is likely to jeopardise the safety or security of any person or premises.

Office-bearers

- 72 The charity trustees must elect (from among themselves) a chair, a treasurer and a secretary.
- 73 In addition to the office-bearers required under clause 74, the charity trustees may elect (from among themselves) further office-bearers if they consider that appropriate.

- 74 Any member wishing to become an office-bearer can be appointed with no voting rights where circumstances are present preventing that person from carrying out full duties where a conflict of interest may arise, or through some other reason out with their control that prevents full participation, as defined as a member. That office bearer may be present at each meeting although they will not take part in decisions and will have no vote, however other member benefits should not be affected.
- 75 All of the office-bearers will cease to hold office at the conclusion of each AGM, but may then be re-elected, under clauses 74 and 75
- 76 A person elected to any office will automatically cease to hold that office: -
- 76.1 if he/she ceases to be a charity trustee; or
 - 76.2 if he/she gives to the organisation a notice of resignation from that office, signed by him/her.

Powers of board

- 77 Except where this constitution states otherwise, the organisation (and its assets and operations) will be managed by the board; and the board may exercise all the powers of the organisation.
- 78 A meeting of the board at which a quorum is present may exercise all powers exercisable by the board.
- 79 The members may, by way of a resolution passed in compliance with clause 48 (requirement for two-thirds majority), direct the board to take any particular step or direct the board not to take any particular step; and the board shall give effect to any such direction accordingly.

Charity trustees - general duties

- 80 Each of the charity trustees has a duty, in exercising functions as a charity trustee, to act in the interests of the organisation; and, in particular, must:-
- 80.1 seek, in good faith, to ensure that the organisation acts in a manner which is in accordance with its purposes;
 - 80.2 act with the care and diligence which it is reasonable to expect of a person who is managing the affairs of another person;
 - 80.3 in circumstances giving rise to the possibility of a conflict of interest between the organisation and any other party:
 - 80.3.1 put the interests of the organisation before that of the other party;

80.3.2 where any other duty prevents him/her from doing so, disclose the conflicting interest to the organisation and refrain from participating in any deliberation or decision of the other charity trustees with regard to the matter in question;

80.4 Ensure that the organisation complies with any direction, requirement, notice or duty imposed under or by virtue of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.

81 In addition to the duties outlined in clause 82, all of the charity trustees must take such steps as are reasonably practicable for the purpose of ensuring: -

81.1 that any breach of any of those duties by a charity trustee is corrected by the charity trustee concerned and not repeated; and

81.2 that any trustee who has been in serious and persistent breach of those duties is removed as a trustee.

82 Provided he/she has declared his/her interest - and has not voted on the question of whether or not the organisation should enter into the arrangement - a charity trustee will not be debarred from entering into an arrangement with the organisation in which he/she has a personal interest; and to the provisions relating to remuneration for services contained in the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005), he/she may retain any personal benefit which arises from that arrangement.

83 No charity trustee may serve as an employee (full time or part time) of the organisation; and no charity trustee may be given any remuneration by the organisation for carrying out his/her duties as a charity trustee.

84 The charity trustees may be paid all travelling and other expenses reasonably incurred by them in connection with carrying out their duties; this may include expenses relating to their attendance at meetings.

Code of conduct for charity trustees

85 Each of the charity trustees shall comply with the code of conduct (incorporating detailed rules on conflict of interest) prescribed by the board from time to time.

86 The code of conduct referred to in clause 87 shall be supplemental to the provisions relating to the conduct of charity trustees contained in this constitution and the duties imposed on charity trustees under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005; and all relevant provisions of this constitution shall be interpreted and applied in accordance with the provisions of the code of conduct in force from time to time

DECISION-MAKING BY THE CHARITY TRUSTEES

Notice of board meetings

- 87 Any charity trustee may call a meeting of the board or ask the secretary to call a meeting of the board.
- 88 At least 7 days' notice must be given of each board meeting, unless (in the opinion of the person calling the meeting) there is a degree of urgency which makes that inappropriate.

Procedure at board meetings

- 89 No valid decisions can be taken at a board meeting unless a quorum is present; the quorum for board meetings is 5 charity trustees, present in person.
- 90 If at any time the number of charity trustees in office falls below the number stated as the quorum, as in clause 91, the remaining charity trustee(s) will have power to fill the vacancies or call a members' meeting - but will not be able to take any other valid decisions.
- 91 The chair of the organisation should act as chairperson of each board meeting.
- 92 If the chair is not present within 15 minutes after the time at which the meeting was due to start (or is not willing to act as chairperson), the charity trustees present at the meeting must elect (from among themselves) the person who will act as chairperson of that meeting.
- 93 Every charity trustee has one vote, which must be given personally.
- 94 All decisions at board meetings will be made by majority vote.
- 95 If there is an equal number of votes for and against any resolution, the chairperson of the meeting will be entitled to a second (casting) vote.
- 96 The board may, at its discretion, allow any person to attend and speak at a board meeting notwithstanding that he/she is not a charity trustee - but on the basis that he/she must not participate in decision-making.
- 97 A charity trustee must not vote at a board meeting (or at a meeting of a sub-committee) on any resolution which relates to a matter in which he/she has a personal interest or duty which conflicts (or may conflict) with the interests of the organisation; he/she must withdraw from the meeting while an item of that nature is being dealt with.
- 98 For the purposes of clause 99: -
- 98.1 an interest held by an individual who is "connected" with the charity trustee under section 68(2) of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 (husband/wife, partner, child, parent, brother/sister, etc.,) shall be deemed to be held by that charity trustee;

98.2 a charity trustee will be deemed to have a personal interest in relation to a particular matter if a body in relation to which he/she is an employee, director, member of the management committee, officer or elected representative has an interest in that matter.

Minutes

- 99 The board must ensure that proper minutes are kept in relation to all board meetings and meetings of sub-committees.
- 100 The minutes to be kept under clause 101 must include the names of those present; and so far as possible should be signed by the chairperson of the meeting.
- 101 The board shall (subject to clause 104) make available copies of the minutes referred to in clause 101 to any member of the public requesting them.
- 102 The board may exclude from any copy minutes made available to a member of the public under clause 103 any material which the board considers ought properly to be kept confidential - on the grounds that allowing access to such material could cause significant prejudice to the interests of the organisation or on the basis that the material contains reference to employee or other matters which it would be inappropriate to divulge.

ADMINISTRATION

Delegation to sub-committees

- 103 The board may delegate any of their powers to sub-committees; a sub-committee must include at least one charity trustee, but other members of a sub-committee need not be charity trustees.
- 104 The board may also delegate to the chair of the organisation (or the holder of any other post) such of their powers as they may consider appropriate.
- 105 When delegating powers under clause 105 or 106, the board must set out appropriate conditions (which must include an obligation to report regularly to the board).
- 106 Any delegation of powers under clause 105 or 106 may be revoked or altered by the board at any time.
- 107 The rules of procedure for each sub-committee, and the provisions relating to membership of each sub-committee, shall be set by the board.

Operation of accounts

- 108 Subject to clause 111, the signatures of two out of three signatories, who are not connected, appointed by the board will be required in relation to all operations (other than the lodging of funds) on the bank and building society accounts held by the organisation; at least one out of the two signatures must be the signature of a charity trustee.
- 109 Where the organisation uses electronic facilities for the operation of any bank or building society account, the authorisations required for operations on that account must be consistent with the approach reflected in clause 110.

Accounting records and annual accounts

- 110 The board must ensure that proper accounting records are kept, in accordance with all applicable statutory requirements.
- 111 The board must prepare annual accounts, complying with all relevant statutory requirements; if an audit is required under any statutory provisions (or if the board consider that an audit would be appropriate for some other reason), the board should ensure that an audit of the accounts is carried out by a qualified auditor.

MISCELLANEOUS

Winding-up

- 112 If the organisation is to be wound up or dissolved, the winding-up or dissolution process will be carried out in accordance with the procedures set out under the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005.
- 113 If, on the winding-up of the Organisation, any property or assets remains after satisfaction of all its debts and liabilities, such property shall be given or transferred to such other community body or bodies or charitable group, which has purposes which resemble closely the purposes of the Organisation, as may be:
- (a) determined by not less than two thirds of the Ordinary Members of the Organisation voting (in person or by proxy) at a General Meeting called specifically (but not necessarily exclusively) for the purpose; and
 - (b) approved by OSCR (and its successors).

Alterations to the constitution

- 114 This constitution may (subject to clause 117) be altered by resolution of the members passed at a members' meeting (subject to achieving the two thirds majority referred to in clause 48) or by way of a written resolution of the members.
- 115 The Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 prohibits taking certain steps (e.g. change of name, an alteration to the purposes, amalgamation, winding-up) without the consent of the Office of the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR).

Interpretation

- 116 References in this constitution to the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 should be taken to include: -
- 116.1 any statutory provision which adds to, modifies or replaces that Act; and
 - 116.2 any statutory instrument issued in pursuance of that Act or in pursuance of any statutory provision falling under paragraph 116.1 above.
- 117 In this constitution: -
- 117.1 "charity" means a body which is either a "Scottish charity" within the meaning of section 13 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 or a "charity" within the meaning of section 1 of the Charities Act 2011, providing (in either case) that its objects are limited to charitable purposes;
 - 117.2 "charitable purpose" means a charitable purpose under section 7 of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 which is also regarded as a charitable purpose in relation to the application of the Taxes Acts.
